Laszlo's Dove Release

For over a thousand years people all over the world have enjoyed these graceful and beautiful birds, symbolic of peace, love, hope, and freedom.

It is my pleasure to bring a unique and memorable touch to your special celebration. The lovely doves are available for engagements and weddings, retirement parties, graduations, funerals, memorials, reunions, sporting events and other such gatherings of family and friends.

Several display packages are also available. Some of our displays are suitable for indoor events as well, Because they are Non-release

I have been raising, breeding and racing homing pigeons since I was a young child in Hungary. This has long been my family's heritage. After leaving my homeland to come to the states, I brought my passion for these wonderful creatures with me.

I have a friendly rapore with pigeon club members in Southern California, and I am building upon here, in the Northstate I had the honor of joining with other local members, together releasing many birds at the Opening Ceremonies of the Sundial Bridge at Turtle Bay on July 3rd, 2004. This occasion offered a spectacular display of many beautiful breeds of doves
